3 JULY 2026

THE EXPLOSION THAT NEVER HAPPENED

Platinum Weekly newspaper |

Rustenburg – An intelligence-driven police operation has led to the arrest of a 29-year-old man who was found in possession of explosives gel cartridges near Boitekong, preventing what authorities believe could have become a far more serious criminal incident.

The arrest took place in Meriting on Monday, 29 June 2026, during a coordinated operation involving the Rustenburg Tactical Response Team (TRT), Public Order Policing (POP), the Royal Bafokeng Tactical Response Team, Bidvest Security and Rustenburg Crime Intelligence.

According to warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi, police acted on intelligence indicating that a man was allegedly attempting to sell explosives to a prospective buyer. The information was operationalised, resulting in the suspect being intercepted. The police recovered three explosives gel cartridges, and the man was unable to provide a lawful explanation for possessing them.

He was immediately arrested and charged with contravening Section 28(1) of the Explosives Act, 1986 (Act No. 26 of 1986).

Three explosives gel cartridges found in the suspect's possession during the intelligence-led operation.

commercial explosives used in mining, quarrying and construction are increasingly finding their way into organised crime, either through theft, diversion or cross-border smuggling. Once in criminal hands, these explosives are commonly used in ATM bombings, cash-in-transit (CIT) robberies, illegal mining operations and attacks on critical infrastructure.

The concern is particularly relevant in the North West Province, one of South Africa's largest mining regions, where law enforcement has in recent years made numerous arrests involving explosives allegedly linked to illegal mining and organised crime.

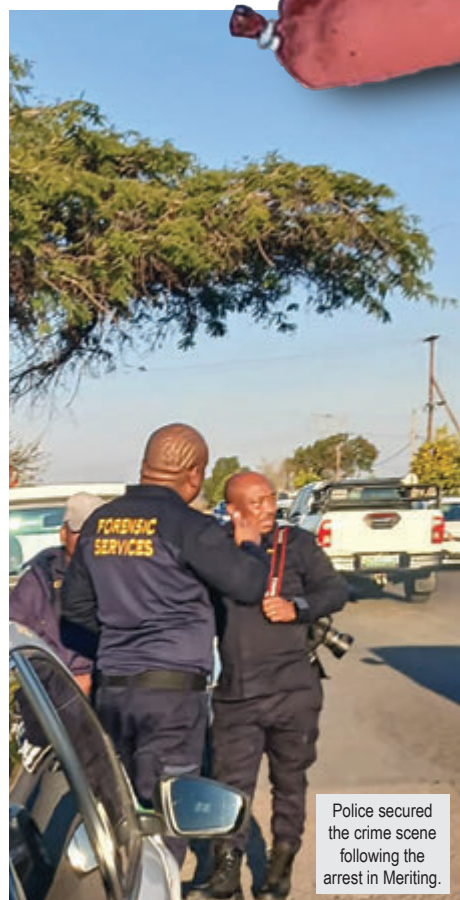

Cash-in-transit robberies remain among the country's most violent crimes. Criminals frequently use military-style firearms and commercial explosives to blast open armoured vehicles, often engaging in shoot-outs with security personnel and police. Innocent motorists and bystanders have also been caught in the crossfire during these attacks.

According to security analysts, although the overall number of CIT robberies has fluctuated, the attacks have become increasingly sophisticated and violent, with organised syndicates operating across provincial boundaries.

Authorities continue to urge members of the public to report anyone attempting to sell or transport explosives illegally, warning that even a small quantity of commercial explosives has the potential to cause devastating loss of life.

A GROWING ORGANISED CRIME THREAT

While police have not indicated where the recovered explosives originated, the arrest once again highlights the growing concern surrounding commercial explosives being diverted into criminal networks. Security experts have repeatedly warned that Police secured the crime scene following the arrest in Meriting.

Dark Court, Santie Bothma case delayed again

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Frustration continues to mount for the family, friends and supporters of Santie Bothma after the latest scheduled court appearance in her murder case could not proceed on Tuesday, 30 June 2026. The matter was expected to continue in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court, but proceedings were brought to a halt when the court was forced to close due to a power outage. As a result, the case did not come before the court, and at the time of going to print, no new court date had been confirmed. The postponement is the latest delay in a case that has drawn widespread public attention and sparked the community-led "Be Her Voice" campaign, with residents continuing to stand alongside Bothma's loved ones in their pursuit of justice. At an earlier appearance, the accused were denied bail after failing to provide verifiable residential addresses. Both remain in custody while facing charges including murder, robbery, hijacking and defeating the ends of justice. The case stems from the tragic death of Santie Bothma (54), whose body was discovered on the Dinie Estate Road on 5 May 2026. Her vehicle was later recovered in Protea Park during a police operation. The accused, Corné Engelbrecht (22) and Roelien Hattingh (34), are expected to return to court once a new date has been set. Despite the latest setback, supporters say they remain committed to the message that has united the campaign from the beginning: "Santie can no longer speak for herself. We can. We will."

Santie Bothma, whose murder case continues to draw strong community support as residents call for justice.

Community members gathered outside the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on 9 June 2026 in support of the "Be Her Voice" campaign and in solidarity with the family and friends of Santie Bothma.

102 Illegal Immigrants Arrested in Rustenburg

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A multi-disciplinary, intelligence-driven operation conducted by the South African Police Service (SAPS) in Rustenburg and Tlhabane has resulted in the arrest of 102 alleged undocumented foreign nationals. The operation, carried out on 24 and 25 June 2026, formed part of intensified law enforcement efforts ahead of the planned 30 June protest. According to SAPS spokesperson colonel Anne Magakoe, 49 suspects were arrested in the Rustenburg policing area and a further 53 in Tlhabane. The suspects, aged between 16 and 61, were arrested for the alleged contravention of the Immigration Act.

In Rustenburg, the operation led to the opening of 33 criminal dockets, while 16 detention warrants were also executed. The arrested individuals were expected to appear before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on charges relating to alleged immigration law violations, while others were processed for deportation. Acting North West provincial commissioner, major general (Dr) Ryno Naidoo, commended all law enforcement agencies and stakeholders involved for their commitment to enforcing immigration legislation. He added that intelligence-driven operations targeting illegal immigration and related criminal activities will continue across the province. Despite concerns ahead of the planned 30 June protest, the day passed without any major incidents being reported in the Rustenburg area.

Every Pole, Every Street, EVERY Difference

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Founded by Ward 15 councillor André van Dyk, Our Ward Matters (OWM) is driven by Van Dyk, Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman, volunteers, residents and local businesses who continue working to create cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods across Wards 15, 16 and 17.

On Monday, 29 June 2026, the team focused on beautification projects in Ward 15, starting at the corner of Loerie and Barbett Avenue before working through several surrounding streets, including Kwartel Crescent, Ibis Street, Safari Avenue, Naguil Laan and Pointsettia Laan. By the end of the day, volunteers had painted 36 rusted street poles, dramatically improving the appearance of the area while also identifying additional maintenance issues requiring future attention.

The day's work extended beyond beautification. Our Ward Cares, OWM's community outreach initiative, also delivered a substantial donation to Emmanuel Sorg NPC, strengthening the partnership between local organisations dedicated to supporting vulnerable families. "It is truly a blessing when people and organisations take hands and work together to make a difference in the lives of others," the OWM team said, thanking Care Centre and GrowthPoint Church for their continued support.

On Tuesday, 30 June, attention shifted to Frangipani and Azalea avenues, where volunteers tackled overgrown vegetation, litter, encroaching grass and sand that had spread into the roadway. The team also cleared three blocked stormwater drains that were clogged with sand, mud, sewage, grass and tree roots, helping to restore proper water flow. However, volunteers noted that the nearby canal remains heavily obstructed and appealed to the Rustenburg Local Municipality to clear it before flooding becomes a serious concern.

Residents are urged to help preserve the improvements by refraining from illegally dumping household refuse, garden waste or tree branches. OWM says much work still lies ahead and plans to return to complete the clean-up, although additional skips will be needed to remove the remaining waste and debris.

The organisation is currently seeking donations of petrol, brushcutter line and heavy-duty refuse bags to continue its community projects.

A Safe Place. A Second Chance.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – In a world where too many children experience neglect, abuse or abandonment, the Môrester Child and Youth Care Centre (CYCC) in Rustenburg stands as a place of hope, healing and new beginnings.

Established as a registered non-profit organisation (NPO) in 2012, Môrester was created to address the growing need for safe care facilities for vulnerable children. Registered with the Department of Social Development as a place of safety, the Centre provides a loving, structured environment where children can begin rebuilding their lives. "Our mission is to care for children who have been abandoned or abused and to provide a safe and secure environment where their physical, emotional and developmental needs are met," explained director Helen Lotz.

Every child admitted to Môrester is placed there through a court order and is supported by a social worker. Before placement, cases are investigated by the relevant authorities to ensure children receive the protection and care they need.

The Centre currently cares for 12 children, ranging in age from just 16 months to 17 years, equally divided between six boys and six girls. Children aged five and older attend various schools across Rustenburg, while many also participate in sport, church and after-school activities that help restore confidence, build friendships and create lasting childhood memories.

Life at Môrester follows a comforting daily routine that brings much-needed stability to children who have often experienced uncertainty. School mornings begin with breakfast before transport to their respective schools. Afternoons are filled with lunch, homework, playtime and family-style routines before bedtime, creating the consistency that is so important for healthy development.

Recognising that many children arrive carrying deep emotional scars, Môrester has built valuable relationships over the years with doctors, clinics and clinical psychologists who assist in helping children overcome trauma and address their healthcare needs.

Despite providing round-the-clock care with a dedicated team of seven staff members, the Centre faces a significant challenge: it receives no social grant funding and relies entirely on the generosity of the community to continue its work. "Our greatest need is always groceries and toiletries, while financial donations help us improve the care we provide. Every contribution, no matter how big or small, makes a real difference," says Lotz.

Community members are encouraged to become involved by volunteering, visiting the Centre or making donations. Môrester is also able to issue Section 18A tax certificates to qualifying donors.

After more than a decade of caring for vulnerable children, the team remains determined to continue serving the community. "Although we are a small Child and Youth Care Centre, we have been here since 2012 and intend to remain here because the need is so great. With the support of our community, we can continue making a difference in the lives of the children entrusted to our care," concludes Lotz.

For those looking to make a lasting impact, supporting Môrester is an opportunity to help provide not just food and shelter – but hope, safety and the promise of a brighter future.

Bushveld trails bring out the best in RCC

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) enjoyed another memorable weekend of mountain biking when they travelled to the picturesque Sondela Nature Reserve in Limpopo for the fourth round of the Ford Trailseeker MTB Series on Saturday, 27 June.

Known for its flowing trails, scenic game tracks and breathtaking Bushveld landscapes, Sondela once again provided riders with a challenging yet rewarding course featuring technical descents, fast singletrack and natural terrain that tested skill, endurance and determination. Cyclists and their families made the journey to enjoy not only the competitive racing, but also the unique atmosphere of one of South Africa's premier mountain biking events. Surrounded by wildlife and fresh Bushveld air, participants embraced every kilometre of the route.

Special congratulations go to Luan Vermeulen, Gerhard Bekker, KR Mabe and Dirk Stoltz, who all delivered outstanding performances and impressive finish times.

“Zone 4 all the way” summed up the team’s spirit as RCC riders proudly represented Rustenburg on the national mountain biking stage. After crossing the finish line, riders gathered in the finishers’ zone to enjoy well-earned refreshments, celebrate their achievements and share stories from another unforgettable day on the trails.

Solidarity: Samancor leads the way – now other smelters urgently need certainty

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Solidarity says Samancor Chrome’s decision to halt its Section 189A retrenchment process and gradually restart its smelters demonstrates that competitive electricity tariffs can make the difference between preserving jobs and losing them.

The company’s decision follows confirmation of an improved electricity tariff agreement with Eskom, along with a five-year pricing outlook that enables it to resume operations. In May, Glencore-Merafe also withdrew its retrenchment plans after securing an improved electricity tariff. According to Cornelius van Leeuwen, sector coordinator at Solidarity, the same sense of urgency must now be applied to the remaining companies still facing uncertainty.

At the same time, Solidarity expressed its appreciation to the stakeholders involved at Samancor, including chief executive officer Desmond McManus and his team, as well as Eskom and government representatives, for successfully turning difficult negotiations into a workable solution. “Samancor’s announcement proves that solutions are possible when all stakeholders work together. This is excellent news for employees and their families, but it cannot mark the end of the process. There are still companies waiting for the certainty they need before they can bring their own retrenchment processes to an end.”

Van Leeuwen said: “Our attention is now focused particularly on companies such as Ferroglobe and Transalloys. We hope that the same pragmatic approach that has protected jobs at Samancor and Glencore-Merafe will also be extended to Ferroglobe, Transalloys, and other smelters.”

He added that South Africa’s ferrochrome industry remains under severe pressure after years of escalating electricity costs, which have already resulted in the closure of numerous smelters. Recent developments, however, demonstrate that competitive electricity tariffs offer a realistic pathway to recovery.

“Every smelter that remains operational protects not only hundreds or even thousands of direct jobs. It also safeguards contractors, local businesses, municipal economies, and South Africa’s ability to add value to its mineral resources.”

Solidarity calls on Eskom, the government, and all relevant stakeholders to conclude the outstanding negotiations with the same urgency to prevent further retrenchments.

One shoebox can change a child's Christmas

Platinum Weekly newspaper – A Santa Shoebox is much more than a gift. It is a message to a child that says: You matter. You are remembered. You are loved. Since 2006, the Santa Shoebox Project has distributed more than 1.3 million personalised shoeboxes to children attending educational and care facilities across South Africa and Namibia. Each box is packed for a specific child and typically contains toiletries, school supplies, clothing, sweets, toys and a personal message of encouragement. Getting involved is easy. Supporters can pledge a shoebox online, receive the details of a child, pack the required items and deliver the completed shoebox to an official collection point. Those who cannot pack a physical shoebox can still make a difference by sponsoring a Virtual Santa Shoebox. Beyond the annual gift drive, the Santa Shoebox Legacy Projects continue creating lasting change through early childhood development programmes focused on build, learn and read.

Ready to make a difference?

Would you consider getting involved in politics?

The recent killings of politicians Sicelo Mleve and Sinovuyo Dyokwe on 20 June 2026 have once again highlighted the risks faced by public representatives. Our heartfelt condolences go to the families, friends and communities affected by these tragic losses.

“Yes. I want to help serve my community, improve public safety and ensure residents' voices are heard. Real change begins when ordinary people step up and take responsibility.”

Lesedi Mampone, Rustenburg

“If I entered politics, it would be to deliver practical solutions – not empty promises. South Africans need leaders who tackle unemployment, crime, failing infrastructure and the rising cost of living with measurable results.”
