

NINE ARRESTED AFTER DOUBLE MURDER AT ILLEGAL MINING SITE

Rustenburg bloody turf war?

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Two men are dead, nine suspects have been arrested, and police believe the violence may be linked to the brutal world of illegal mining operating near Sun City. The arrests come at a time when South Africa is experiencing heightened tension around illegal immigration and illegal mining, with law enforcement intensifying operations across the country. Following nationwide protests around the 30 June deadline set by activist groups for undocumented foreign nationals to leave the country, authorities have stressed that immigration laws must be enforced through lawful state processes, not vigilantism.

According to police, an intelligence-driven operation by Rustenburg Crime Intelligence, supported by Sun City and Phokeng Visible Policing, led officers to intercept a white Toyota Quantum on the R565 between Boshoeck and Phokeng at about 06:45 on Saturday, 4 July 2026. Seven men and two women, all Lesotho nationals, were arrested.

Police spokesperson warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi said preliminary investigations have linked three of the suspects to the fatal stabbing of a Lesotho man on Friday, 3 July 2026. Investigators believe the killing may have sparked a revenge attack. The following morning, another Lesotho national was allegedly shot dead. His body, riddled with multiple gunshot wounds, was discovered inside a mining pit at an illegal mining site in Witrantjie. While police have not officially described the incidents as a gang conflict, the sequence of events points to what appears to be a violent retaliation between rival groups operating in the illegal mining underworld. Such syndicates are often heavily armed and have been linked to extortion, violent crime and deadly territorial disputes. The remaining six people arrested will be processed by the Department of Home Affairs to determine their immigration status. The arrests come amid a broader national crackdown on organised crime, illegal mining and immigration-related offences. President Cyril Ramaphosa has authorised additional security deployments in recent months, including thousands of members of the South African National Defence Force to support police in maintaining law and order in areas experiencing unrest and illegal mining criminal activity. Acting Bojanala Platinum sub-district 2 district commissioner brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae praised the swift arrests. Police say investigations continue, and further arrests have not been ruled out.

Remembering Hanru

A LITTLE BOY WHO TOUCHED THOUSANDS OF HEARTS

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – At just two years old, little Hanru van der Walt left a legacy that many people never achieve in a lifetime. Through unimaginable courage, a radiant smile and a story that touched thousands of hearts, the Rustenburg toddler continues to inspire hope, awareness and compassion long after his passing.

Hanru was born on 18 August 2023 and, according to his mother, Natasha van der Walt, was a gentle, joyful little boy who loved trains, animals, pizza and spending time with his family. He adored his older brother, five-year-old Luan, who was not only his sibling but also his best friend. Together with their father, Malcolm, they were a close family of four whose lives changed forever when Hanru was just 11 months old.

What first appeared to be severe constipation soon revealed something far more devastating. After several hospital visits, doctors discovered a large tumour extending from Hanru's abdomen into his leg. Following further tests at Kloof Hospital in Pretoria, his parents received the heartbreaking diagnosis on 13 August 2024: rhabdomyosarcoma, a rare and aggressive childhood cancer. Just five days later, on his first birthday, instead of celebrating with balloons and cake, Hanru received his very first chemotherapy treatment.

From that day onward, the family's world revolved around hospitals, chemotherapy, radiation, surgeries, blood transfusions, endless scans and fervent prayers. Hanru underwent multiple rounds of treatment, major operations and countless hospital admissions. The aggressive treatment took a heavy toll on his tiny body, damaging his liver and kidneys and leaving him highly vulnerable to infections. He even spent his second Christmas in hospital.

The emotional and financial strain was immense. Natasha and Hanru often spent weeks in Pretoria for treatment, while Malcolm and Luan remained in Rustenburg. Yet despite the distance and hardship, the family never stopped believing or fighting.

"Kanker raak nooit net die persoon wat siek is nie. Dit verander die hele gesin se lewe," Natasha shared. She also hopes Hanru's story reminds people not to overlook siblings, who often carry enormous emotional burdens during a child's illness. Throughout their journey, the family was uplifted by an outpouring of support from doctors, nurses, therapists, schools, friends, churches and complete strangers. Natasha expressed heartfelt gratitude to Dr Bez Engelbrecht, who walked beside the family from the very beginning, as well as everyone who prayed, donated blood and platelets, shared their story or simply stood by them during their darkest days.

Despite every effort, the cancer continued to spread. On 10 June 2026, at 04:54, Hanru peacefully passed away in the arms of those who loved him most.

"No parent should ever have to say goodbye to their child," Natasha said.

Yet even in their overwhelming grief, the Van der Walt family has chosen to let Hanru's life speak louder than his illness. "We don't want people to remember Hanru only for the cancer he had. He was a little boy with a huge heart, a beautiful smile and a love that no disease could ever take away."

The family hopes that by sharing Hanru's story, more parents will recognise when something may not be right, seek medical attention sooner and become aware of rhabdomyosarcoma and childhood cancer.

"If Hanru's story helps even one child to be diagnosed earlier, or one family to realise they are not alone, then his legacy lives on."

Although Hanru's voice has fallen silent, his story continues to echo through thousands of hearts – reminding us to cherish every moment, support families facing childhood cancer, and never underestimate the courage that can live inside the smallest of heroes.

Hang Glider seriously injured near Harties Cableway

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Hartbeespoort – A coordinated rescue operation unfolded near the Hartbeespoort Cableway on Saturday, 4 July 2026, after a hang glider was seriously injured while on the mountain. Emergency medical and rescue teams responded swiftly to the scene, where paramedics assessed the injured woman and found that she had sustained serious injuries. She was treated on site before being carefully immobilised in preparation for the challenging rescue. Due to the steep and difficult terrain, rescuers carried the patient to the cableway station. From there, she was safely transported down the mountain by cable car, accompanied by a paramedic who continued to monitor her condition and provide medical care throughout the descent. Once at the base of the mountain, the patient was taken to a nearby school, where an emergency medical helicopter was waiting. She was then airlifted to a specialised medical facility in Johannesburg for further treatment.

Hartbeespoort Emergency Medical Service thanked all the emergency teams involved for their professionalism, teamwork and dedication, saying their combined efforts ensured the patient received the highest standard of care under difficult circumstances.

CLEANING UP THE INDUSTRY:

How 25-year-old Gabedi Lesejane is turning a small business into a national operation

www.sibanyestillwater.com

What started as a mother-son side hustle is now gaining serious traction as a national contender in South Africa's commercial cleaning space.

At just 25, Gabedi Lesejane is the co-founder and co-director of Gabs and Maps Multi-Purpose, a Rustenburg-based business originally rooted in engineering. Today, however, its fastest-growing division is cleaning. From office parks to malls, Gabs and Maps now delivers full-service hygiene solutions with a strong focus on compliance, professionalism and value for money.

Gabedi co-founded the business with his mother in 2018 while studying mechanical engineering. After graduating and completing the Sibanye-Stillwater Youth in Mining Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) programme, he realised just how far they could take the business. With the right tools, training and support, they expanded their offerings, grew their client base and built a team of more than twenty permanent staff.

The company now operates across two Rustenburg sites and is expanding its footprint in Gauteng, with vendor registrations underway for major property and retail players like Growthpoint and Sun International.

SEEING THE OPPORTUNITY IN AN OVERLOOKED INDUSTRY

Gabedi says the decision to focus on cleaning came from recognising the consistent demand and the chance to professionalise a service that is often overlooked. "Cleaning is one of those industries people do not always take seriously, but it is essential. We want to change the narrative. We want to make cleaning professional and even exciting. Our team has more than fifty years of combined experience and we invest in annual upskilling to ensure we stay ahead."

The shift in focus does not mean engineering has been abandoned. The company is still tendering for several contracts in the mining sector, however, the cleaning division is growing rapidly and has opened doors to new markets. From laundry services to deep cleaning, the goal is to become a holistic cleaning service provider for large organisations.

TRAINING THAT TRANSFORMED THE BUSINESS

Gabedi credits much of his business growth to the Sibanye-Stillwater ESD programme, delivered by Phakamani Impact Capital. "The training helped me understand our value proposition better. It helped us see where we could offer more value in the value chain. I learned how to communicate what we do more clearly, how to present to large clients and how to position our services in line with industry standards," he says.

Beyond the operations, Gabedi's personal growth has been equally significant. "I used to struggle with public speaking. I used to stutter. Now I have the confidence to stand up and pitch our services with clarity and pride. The coaching helped me open my mind and realise what we could really achieve. It gave me a vision."

FROM PERSONAL GROWTH TO NATIONAL AMBITION

In the next five years, he wants to see Gabs and Maps operating nationally with at least one hundred employees, regional operations managers, and a fleet of vehicles to support growth. He also wants to secure ISO certification and continue investing in systems that support quality, safety and compliance.

"Our aim is to offer a world-class service, every time. No shortcuts, no paperwork missing. Just professionalism, value and results," says Gabedi.

From stuttering pitches to confident boardroom presentations, and from a two-person team to a growing workforce, Gabedi's journey shows what is possible when passion meets hard work.

KINDNESS THAT WARMS MORE THAN WINTER

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Moruleng, Rustenburg – As winter’s icy grip tightens across the North West, two old age homes in Moruleng experienced something far warmer than the season could offer – the kindness of people who simply wanted to make a difference.

On Tuesday 16 June 2026, the AVBOB Rustenburg team spent the day visiting Dikweipi Old Age Home and Naome Old Age Home, where they not only delivered food hampers and warm knee blankets, but also shared something equally valuable: time, compassion and genuine care.

For many elderly residents, the visit was about far more than receiving gifts. It was a reminder that they are seen, valued and remembered by their community. To help ease the burden on the facilities, AVBOB donated food hampers that will assist in sustaining the homes for the coming weeks. Every resident also received a soft knee blanket to help keep warm during the cold winter months.

One of the most meaningful gifts presented was AVBOB’s File of Life – a thoughtfully designed booklet that helps senior citizens organise important personal information before it is needed. The file includes a living will, a section for final wishes, medical information, policy details and guidance on the documentation families may require when a loved one passes away.

According to Lucille van Onselen, liaison officer for AVBOB North West, the File of Life is designed to bring peace of mind to both senior citizens and their families during one of life’s most difficult seasons. “The File of Life helps families know exactly where important information can be found and what their loved one wanted. It contains everything from medical details and policy information to a person’s final wishes, making a very difficult time a little easier for those left behind,” she explained.

Van Onselen added that both facilities also received food hampers to help sustain them for several weeks, while every resident received a warm knee blanket to make the winter months a little more comfortable.

Although the donations were practical in nature, the greatest gift of the day was perhaps the warmth that could not be wrapped or packed. Through conversation, laughter and shared moments, the AVBOB team reminded residents that they remain an important part of the community.

Rising electricity tariffs make energy planning more important than ever

Platinum Publishers | SA – The 9.01% municipal electricity tariff increase taking effect on 1 July 2026 will place further pressure on South African businesses at a time when operating costs are already under strain. While the percentage increase may appear relatively modest in isolation, the bottom-line impact is significant when applied to large energy users. David MacDonald, CEO at SolarAfrica, commented: “SolarAfrica’s modelling shows that a typical C&I business consuming around 1,000,000 kWh per month could see annual electricity costs rise by between R2.88 million and R3.34 million over the next year, depending on operating profile. More concerning is that these increases are becoming a recurring feature of the energy landscape rather than a once-off event.

With a further 8.83% increase already proposed for next year, businesses are facing a future where electricity costs continue to escalate faster than many other input costs. This makes long-term planning increasingly difficult, particularly for energy-intensive sectors such as manufacturing, mining, agriculture and logistics. A few years ago, businesses were primarily focused on keeping the lights on during loadshedding. Today, the challenge increasingly involves managing cost volatility and maintaining competitiveness amid rising electricity prices. By combining solutions such as on-site solar, battery storage, wheeling and energy trading, companies can build a more diversified energy mix that not only improves resilience but also provides greater cost certainty over the long term.”

But do you have to pay if you have solar?

After some digging, it seems that South Africans do not pay a national “solar tax” simply for installing solar panels. However, if your home or business remains connected to the municipal or Eskom electricity grid, your solar system generally needs to be registered and approved. Depending on your municipality, you may also be required to pay application, metering or fixed network charges. These fees are not for generating your own electricity, but for remaining connected to the grid, which provides backup power and allows electricity to flow safely. Requirements vary between municipalities, with cities such as Johannesburg requiring grid-tied solar installations to be registered before they can legally operate. Critics argue these costs could discourage investment in renewable energy, while municipalities maintain the charges are necessary to fund the electricity infrastructure that solar users still rely on when the sun isn’t shining. Only time will tell how this plays out. Hopefully, the outcome will benefit consumers.

Where Communities Care, Neighbourhoods Thrive

Thank you to Loelie Ravenscroft from RE/MAX for lending a helping hand. Community partnerships like these are making a visible difference!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Founded by Ward 15 councillor André van Dyk, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues to prove what can be achieved when residents, businesses, volunteers and community leaders work together. Led by André van Dyk and Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman, the initiative is transforming Wards 15, 16 and 17 into cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods.

On Thursday, 2 July 2026, the Our Ward Matters team tackled large open spaces at Little Margate in Krokodilrivier and behind homes in Palalarivier. Using brushcutters, volunteers cleared dense vegetation to reduce the risk of veld fires while also removing litter and illegally dumped waste. Unfortunately, additional illegal dumping was discovered in the Timbati veld. Meanwhile, another dedicated volunteer continued collecting litter throughout the Rivers area, helping to keep Ward 17 clean.

On Friday, 3 July, attention shifted to Helen Joseph Road leading towards Kgaswane. Overgrown vegetation near the pump station was cleared, improving visibility, enhancing safety and making it easier for the Rustenburg Local Municipality to access the area for maintenance. At the same time, another volunteer continued litter collection throughout Ward 17. A special word of thanks was extended to RE/MAX, particularly Loelie Ravenscroft, for joining the team during the clean-up. Her support highlighted the importance of businesses and residents joining hands to build stronger communities.

On Monday, 6 July, Our Ward Matters thanked its loyal supporters whose donations continue to keep the project going. Special appreciation was extended to Jacques and Vista Café for donating petrol, Water4U Wildevy for supplying drinking water, and The Paint Palette for providing refuse bags. Two volunteers focused on Witstinkhout Avenue, clearing overgrown grass and veld behind homes to improve visibility and safety. Another team worked alongside Rustenburg Baptist Church, clearing dense vegetation, cleaning both sides of the bridge and removing litter along Moepel Avenue.

The Our Ward Matters team continued restoring public spaces during another successful community clean-up on 6 July.

The team also reported encouraging progress next to the church, where only one informal structure now remains.

Our Ward Matters volunteers cleared overgrown vegetation and removed litter during the community clean-up on 2 July.

2026 NATIONS CHAMPIONSHIP

Die afskop van die afgelope naweek het sommer van die staanspoor af goeie ruggas opgedis, veral as 'n mens in ag neem dat dit die eerste toetse van die seisoen was, ou grote. Die Kiwi's het behoorlik klippe gekou teen die Franse Hane, wat doer onder sonder 'n hele klomp van hul sterre moes klaarkom. Australië was wragtig ongelukkig om teen die Iere vas te val. Skotland het die Argentyne weer 'n lekker pak slae gegee. En dan... Rassie se groen masjien het die bleekbene in Jo'burg behoorlik wakker geskud, maats! Die Engelse Barbie, Pocock, was natuurlik in sy skik met die nuus dat Yster Eben hom mos aan die Bokspan onttrek het.

Triple Triumph for Sibanye Warriors!

The Sibanye Warriors 1st team proudly celebrated after lifting the prestigious Executive Vice Presidents (EVP) Cup following an outstanding derby victory.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Sibanye Warriors Rugby Club enjoyed a memorable day on the field as all three of their teams recorded impressive victories against the Sibanye Lions during the annual Sibanye Stillwater Derby for the prestigious Executive Vice Presidents (EVP) Cup. The action unfolded at the Waterval Sports Grounds on Saturday, 4 July 2026, where supporters were treated to an exciting display of attacking rugby and determined defence. The Warriors' 1st Team produced a commanding performance to defeat the Sibanye Lions 76-24 and secure the coveted EVP Cup. Outstanding player Sakkie Smith was named Man of the Match after an exceptional all-round performance that helped drive his side to victory. The club's success continued as the 2nd Team completely dominated their opponents, running in an emphatic 56-0 victory. The Sibanye Warriors Women's Team also had plenty to celebrate after defeating the Sibanye Lions Women 21-12, rounding off a clean sweep for the club on home soil. The Warriors now shift their focus to the Nesser A League, where the club travels to Klerksdorp on Saturday, 11 July, to take on Klerksdorp Rugby Club. The 2nd Team kicks off at 14:00, followed by the 1st Team at 15:30.

PERSONAL BESTS IN THE BAG

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Congratulations to Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg members Vicky Thiart Lourens and Elrike Opperman, who both achieved personal best times in the Brooks Cradle Cracker 10km on Sunday, 28 June 2026. The scenic event, held in the Cradle of Humankind near Muldersdrift, is known for its challenging route through beautiful countryside and attracts runners chasing new personal milestones.

IMPALA CHARGE TO DOUBLE VICTORY

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club delivered an impressive performance on home turf on Saturday, 4 July 2026, with both the 1st and 2nd teams claiming valuable victories in their LRU President League fixtures against Rovers Rugby Club from Welkom. The 1st Team produced a determined display to overcome their visitors 38-24, while the 2nd Team followed suit with a thrilling 28-24 win, making it a memorable day for the club and its supporters. Outstanding individual performances also played a key role in the victories. Junior Kuhn was named Man of the Match for the 1st Team after an influential performance, while Rickus van Niekerk earned the same honour for the 2nd Team.

The Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club 1st Team celebrated a hard-fought victory in the LRU President League after defeating Rovers Rugby Club Welkom on home soil.

The back-to-back wins provide Rustenburg Impala with valuable momentum as they continue their LRU President League campaign and build confidence for the challenges that lie ahead. The club will once again enjoy home-ground advantage this weekend when they host Matlosana Rugby Academy on Saturday, 11 July, in another round of the LRU President League. The 2nd Team will kick off at 14:00, followed by the 1st Team at 15:30.

Did you know?

REFEREES DIDN'T ALWAYS HAVE CARDS!
Yellow and red cards only made their World Cup debut in 1970. Before then, referees simply warned or sent players off verbally, often causing confusion because of language barriers. The colour-card system was inspired by traffic lights – yellow means "caution", red means "stop". Today, it's one of football's most recognised symbols.

BREAKING THE ICE IN STYLE

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Congratulations to Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg members Nicky Kruger and Ronel Kolver on their excellent performances at the Garsfontein Ice Breaker Half Marathon, held in Pretoria on Saturday, 4 July 2026. The popular winter road-running event is known for its crisp conditions and challenging route, attracting runners from across Gauteng and beyond. Nicky claimed victory by winning the Ladies Veteran (40–49) category in a time of 1:57:59, while Ronel celebrated a new personal best, finishing in 2:07. Well done to both athletes on flying the Rustenburg flag high!

Jannie du Toit vier 55 jaar op die verhoog by Tarentaal Teater

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Een van Afrikaans se mees geliefde liedjieskrywers en baanbrekers van ligte Afrikaanse musiek, Jannie du Toit, keer op Sondag 26 Julie 2026 terug na die Tarentaal Teater in Rustenburg met sy gewilde eenmanvertoning, Oppiekitaar. Die Tarentaal Teater, wat sedert 2009 gehore verwelkom, is self 'n unieke bestemming. Die teater is gevestig in 'n ou lemoenpakhuis wat reeds in 1914 opgerig is en het sy naam gekry van die mak tarentale wat hulle deur die jare daar tuisgemaak het. Met paraffienlampies op die tafels, heerlike boerekos en koolstowe wat in die winter aangesteek word, bied die teater 'n warm, rustige en nostalgiese atmosfeer. Van Suid-Afrika se topkunstenaars, waaronder Mathys Roets, Chris Chameleon, Kahn, Amanda Strydom en Danie Niehaus, het al hier opgetree. Jannie du Toit is self geen vreemdeling vir die Tarentaal Teater nie en keer nou terug ter viering van 55 jaar op die professionele verhoog. In Oppiekitaar word hy slegs deur sy kitaar begelei terwyl hy ongeveer 20 liedjies uitvoer – 'n keur uit die byna 200 liedjies wat hy gedurende sy loopbaan geskryf het. Sy musiek word reeds dekades lank gekenmerk deur keurige lirieke, vindingryke akkoordgebruik en, nou meer as ooit, sy meesterlike kitaarspel. Hoewel sy werk veral by fynproewers aanklank vind, bewys liedjies soos 'n Liedjie vir jou dat sy musiek 'n universele aantrekkingskrag het. Die program het ook internasionaal groot indruk gemaak. Gedurende 2025 het Du Toit met Oppiekitaar 'n uiters suksesvolle konserttoer deur die Benelux-lande onderneem, waar hy onder meer in die Suid-Afrikahuis in Amsterdam en by Herman van Veen se Kapschuur-teater voor vol sale opgetree en staande toejuigings ontvang het. Die liedjies in die vertoning wissel tussen vrolikheid en nostalgie, humor en besinning – 'n weerspieëling van die liedjiesmaker én die lewensreis wat ons almal deel. Gaste kan die dag reeds vanaf 12:00 begin met sop, plaasbrood en 'n nagereg teen R100 per persoon. Die vertoning begin om 14:00, met kaartjies teen R150. Vir besprekings, skakel 082 782 3019.

Jannie du Toit bring sy gewilde eenmanvertoning, Oppiekitaar, op Sondag 26 Julie 2026 na die Tarentaal Teater in Rustenburg, waar hy 55 jaar op die professionele verhoog vier.
