

BORN TO FLY | Henry and Arrow take to the skies by helicopter – where an extraordinary partnership was about to make history.

Come meet the Guinness World Record skydiving German Shepherd at President Hyper on Saturday, 22 August!

ARROW LANDS IN RUSTENBURG!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Some heroes wear uniforms. One extraordinary Rustenburg hero has four paws, a fearless heart – and made history in the skies.

Next month marks 10 years since Arrow, Henry Holsthyzen's remarkable German Shepherd, made the skydive that would send his name around the world. What began as an operational challenge became history when Arrow was recognised as the first anti-poaching dog to skydive.

But a world record barely scratches the surface of this dog's life. Arrow tracked poachers, detected explosives, worked alongside law enforcement, helped protect South Africa's wildlife and served the Rustenburg community. He rappelled from helicopters, faced danger without hesitation and, when Henry himself was badly injured, simply changed missions – from protector in the field to the loyal friend who would not leave his side.

Today, at 16, the mighty working dog has grown old. The helicopters still excite him, but his jumping days are over. Now, he is happiest sleeping beside Henry's bed. Henry knows their remaining time is precious.

Arrow flew into the record books – but his greatest legacy was never the jump. It is the courage, loyalty and love he left everywhere his paws touched the earth.

Read Arrow's incredible story inside. See page 4.

A Guinness World Record legend is coming to President Hyper, Rustenburg, you're invited to meet him! The one and only Arrow, the extraordinary skydiving and anti-poaching dog whose courage took him from dangerous operations to the skies and into the record books, will be at President Hyper, Rustenburg, on Saturday, 22 August 2026, from 10:00 to 12:00. Bring the family. Meet the dogs. See the demonstrations. And, most importantly, come say hello to Arrow. Because you don't get many chances to meet a legend.

THE FACE OF A LEGEND | Brave, loyal and fearless – Arrow devoted his working life to protecting people and wildlife, and his retirement to staying close to his best friend.

14 DEAD IN NKANENG ILLEGAL MINING TRAGEDY

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Fourteen suspected illegal miners have died after an excavated area collapsed at the Nkaneng dumping site in Rustenburg, close to one of Sibanye-Stillwater's operations, while authorities fear that more people could still be trapped. North West provincial commissioner lieutenant general Arthur Adams confirmed that police were alerted to the incident at approximately 21:00 on Monday, 10 August 2026. According to preliminary information, a group of suspected zama-zamas had been manually digging in an excavated area at the dumping site when the walls caved in, trapping them. A company reportedly holds a permit to extract platinum group metals (PGMs) in the area.

A fellow zama-zama reportedly alerted nearby mine security before disappearing. Emergency services and law enforcement were called to the scene, where 14 bodies were discovered. Most of the deceased are believed to be Basotho nationals. Eight people were rescued and taken to hospital. Three were later discharged and detained for alleged contraventions of the Immigration Act, while five remained in hospital under police guard at the time of the SAPS statement. The operation remained active on Tuesday, 11 August, as authorities could not rule out the possibility that an unknown number of people were still trapped. SAPS said rescue and recovery remained the immediate priority, with resources being mobilised at the scene.

Lieutenant general Adams described the tragedy as a stark reminder of the deadly risks associated with illegal mining and warned that SAPS, together with the South African National Defence Force (SANDF) and other authorities, would intensify operations against illegal mining and the criminal networks behind it. "Illegal mining kills. Illegal mining fuels organised crime. And illegal mining will not be tolerated in the North West," Adams said.

Police also appealed to communities to provide information about those financing illegal mining operations, supplying equipment, facilitating access or benefiting from illegally extracted minerals.

TLM launches Rapid Response Team

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) has established a new Rapid Response Team aimed at speeding up the resolution of service delivery challenges and improving cooperation between government departments and key stakeholders. The team was officially established during the municipality's inaugural Service Delivery Meeting on Wednesday, 5 August 2026, convened by municipal manager Adv. Ashmar Khuduge.

The initiative follows strategic engagements between RLM and the Department of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA), during which the need for a structured "Administrative War Room" was identified. The platform is intended to bring the relevant role players around one table so that problems affecting residents can be addressed more quickly and in a coordinated manner. Representatives from Rustenburg SAPS, Rand Water, the Department of Social Development, SASSA, the Department of Health, COGHSTA, Home Affairs and Human Settlements attended the inaugural meeting. The Rapid Response Team will meet weekly under the chairpersonship of the municipal manager. Meetings will focus on emerging service delivery concerns, coordinating interventions and monitoring whether agreed actions are implemented. For Rustenburg residents, the real measure of the initiative will ultimately be visible results on the ground.

Arrow: The dog who flew into history, and landed in our hearts

PARTNERS, HEROES, BEST FRIENDS | Henry Holsthyzen with Arrow and the Guinness World Records certificate recognising the remarkable feat that sent this Rustenburg K9's story around the world.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Some dogs leave pawprints on the floor. Others leave them on history.

Next month marks 10 years since Rustenburg's extraordinary Arrow took to the skies with his owner and handler, Henry Holsthyzen, in a feat that would ultimately earn him international recognition as the first anti-poaching dog to skydive. But behind the Guinness World Records recognition, helicopters and daring missions lies a far greater story – one of courage, service and the remarkable bond between a man and his dog.

Arrow, now 16 years old, is a DDR German Shepherd born at Henry's home in June 2010. From the beginning, Henry says there was something different about him. While his brother Alpha was bigger, Arrow had exceptional drive and potential. He would go on to be trained in protection work, tracking, explosive detection, counter-poaching, hostage release and air operations. He could abseil from cliffs and buildings, rappel from helicopters – and, according to Henry, absolutely loved to fly.

From fearless working dog to faithful old friend

Time, however, catches even the bravest among us.

After Henry was seriously injured in 2022 and endured a lengthy recovery, Arrow barely left his side. Henry says it was then that his partner of so many dangerous missions showed him what "REAL Loyalty" meant. By 2023, Arrow himself was slowing down. His hearing and eyesight were deteriorating and arthritis was taking its toll. Henry made the heartbreaking decision to retire him.

Today, there are no suspects to chase and no helicopters waiting for take-off. Arrow is happiest simply knowing Henry is nearby. And perhaps that is the most beautiful chapter of all. Henry describes Arrow as his once-in-a-lifetime K9 – intelligent, fearless and fiercely loyal, yet gentle enough to go from serious operational work to happily playing with schoolchildren. As the tenth anniversary of that historic jump approaches, Henry knows their time together is precious.

"Every day with him is a gift," he says. Arrow taught him to be brave when afraid, loyal to those he loves, and to live with honour and integrity. One day, the dog who once soared through the sky will no longer be sleeping beside his best friend's bed.

But legends do not disappear when they grow old. They simply stop running, jumping and flying – and leave the rest of us with a story worth remembering.

Arrow flew into the record books 10 years ago. But his greatest achievement may be something no certificate could ever measure: the life he protected, the people he served, and the man whose heart he changed forever.

A leap into history

Arrow's famous jump was never planned as a world-record attempt. Henry had been involved in developing a way for tactical explosive-detection dog teams to reach remote operational areas by air. With no purpose-built equipment available for skydiving with a K9, Henry modified a rappelling harness himself – and Arrow was the obvious dog for the job.

On 17 September 2016, during the Africa Aerospace and Defence Expo at Air Force Base Waterkloof, Henry and Arrow performed their skydive as part of an anti-poaching demonstration before a crowd of approximately 75,000 people. It worked.

In December that year, Guinness World Records contacted Henry, informing him that its research had identified Arrow as the first anti-poaching dog to skydive. Suddenly, the Rustenburg K9 was making headlines around the world.

Yet flying was only a small part of Arrow's legacy. He and Henry later worked in anti-poaching operations in Limpopo, where Arrow tracked suspects and assisted in combating rhino poaching. He also worked in areas including Madikwe, Pilanesberg, Kruger National Park and Marakele, while helping to teach children about conservation and the role working dogs play in protecting people and wildlife.

After returning to Rustenburg in 2018, Arrow continued serving closer to home, assisting the CPF, SAPS and others requiring K9 support. He accompanied Henry on vehicle recoveries and

Meet Arrow and the next generation

Henry and his dogs will be at President Hyper in Rustenburg on Saturday, 22 August 2026, from 10:00 to 12:00, where visitors can meet them and see various demonstrations with the puppies.

COURAGE AT ALTITUDE | High above the ground, Henry and Arrow demonstrate the trust that made their pioneering airborne work possible.

Kgetlengrivier's Financial Recovery Plan is failing as municipality turns to borrowing

Press release extracts
By Mduduzi Maphanga - DA PR Councillor, Kgetlengrivier Local Municipality

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Kgetlengrivier Local Municipality – The Democratic Alliance in Kgetlengrivier is deeply concerned that the municipality's Financial Recovery Plan (FRP) is failing to deliver the financial turnaround residents were promised. Despite the municipality remaining under a Section 139 intervention and implementing a Financial Recovery Plan, the latest financial reports indicate that revenue collection has deteriorated significantly instead of improving. While some progress has reportedly been made in curbing expenditure, the municipality continues to struggle to collect the revenue needed to remain financially sustainable. The seriousness of the situation was highlighted when the mayor informed council that the municipality had no option but to pursue a R10 million overdraft facility after the Provincial Executive Representative (PER) reportedly advised against it. According to the mayor, failure to secure the overdraft would leave the municipality unable to meet its financial obligations. The DA questioned this decision and raised concerns that, while financial shortfalls were referenced, council was not provided with a clear breakdown of the projected deficits or the long-term implications of taking on additional debt. An overdraft is not a financial recovery strategy. It is a temporary measure that merely postpones the problem. Once the borrowed funds are exhausted, the municipality risks finding itself in exactly the same financial position, unless the underlying failures in revenue collection are addressed.

Guns and ammo seized in Marikana bust

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Marikana, Rustenburg – An intelligence-driven police operation in Lapologang, Marikana, led to the arrest of a 41-year-old man and the seizure of an unlicensed firearm, ammunition and a replica firearm on Thursday, 30 July 2026. According to sergeant Kelebogile Morake, members of the Marikana Crime Prevention Unit, supported by Crime Intelligence and the Rustenburg Local Criminal Record Centre (LCRC), acted on information received and searched the suspect's residence. Police recovered an unlicensed firearm, ammunition and a replica firearm during the search. The suspect, believed to be a Lesotho national, was arrested and appeared before the Marikana Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 4 August 2026, on charges of possession of an unlicensed firearm and ammunition. North West provincial commissioner lieutenant general Arthur Adams said police would continue their efforts to remove illegal firearms from communities and ensure that those responsible face the criminal justice system.

Ammunition recovered during the operation – some of the rounds were concealed inside a matchbox.

Cleaning Up, Cutting Back, Caring More

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Founded by Ward 15 councillor André van Dyk, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues to demonstrate the remarkable difference that can be achieved when residents, businesses, volunteers and community leaders unite behind a common goal. Under the leadership of Cllr André van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, the initiative is steadily transforming Wards 15, 16 and 17 into cleaner, safer and more welcoming communities.

The past week highlighted both the ongoing challenge of illegal dumping and the determination of volunteers who refuse to let environmental neglect define their neighbourhoods.

On Tuesday, 4 August 2026, the team worked around Kwartel Crescent near Libertas Complex, clearing rubbish and cutting back overgrown grass in the open veld stretching towards Ibis Avenue and along Arend Avenue. Volunteers again encountered evidence of illegal dumping, while part of the remaining veld had also been burnt.

The work continued on Wednesday, 5 August, when OWM returned to Kwartel Crescent, this time concentrating on the veld next to Santa Maria Complex towards Loerie Road.

The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) Waste Department supplied a skip, enabling the team to remove branches and bags of dumped waste. Thick vegetation was cut back to improve visibility and make the area safer for residents who use it for walking, jogging and exercise.

On Thursday, 6 August, Cllr Rothman led the team in Helen Joseph, near the pump station and towards the Krokodilrivier. Debushing and grass cutting improved visibility, reduced potential fire hazards and opened access around important municipal infrastructure.

Then, on Tuesday, 11 August, Cllr Van Dyk led operations in Ward 17, with litter collected from Azaleapark and Sellypark towards the Greystone traffic lights and BP Waterfall Mall.

OWM stressed that volunteers cannot win the battle alone. Litter and illegal dumping damage the environment, attract pests, can block stormwater systems, increase fire risks and make neighbourhoods feel neglected and unsafe. The message to residents is simple: dispose of waste responsibly, report illegal dumping and teach children to respect their surroundings.

A clean community is not created by one person — it is created when all of us take responsibility.

Our Ward Matters volunteers tackled rubbish and overgrown vegetation in the open veld near Kwartel Crescent, helping reclaim the area for the community.

The OWM team cleared overgrown vegetation near Helen Joseph and the pump station, improving visibility, access and safety.

Another day, another visible difference! The OWM team continued clearing the veld near Santa Maria Complex, with support from the RLM Waste Department.

Rustenburg se Jadon Bourne stel op 14 Augustus 2026 sy debuut-enkelsnit, Wie jy was, vry – die begin van 'n opwindende nuwe hoofstuk vir dié 24-jarige sanger en liedjieskrywer.

Rustenburg se Jadon Bourne laat sy stem hoor!

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Hou dié naam dop! Die 24-jarige Jadon Bourne van Rustenburg betree 'n opwindende nuwe hoofstuk met die vrystelling van sy debuut-enkelsnit, Wie jy was, op Vrydag 14 Augustus 2026.

Jadon is in Pretoria gebore, maar het op 10-jarige ouderdom Rustenburg toe verhuis, waar hy grootgeword het. Ná 'n paar jaar in Potchefstroom is hy vandag weer terug in Rustenburg – die plek wat hy sy tuiste noem.

Musiek loop al van kleins af soos 'n goue draad deur sy lewe. Hy het reeds in graad R sy eerste solo gesing en deur sy skooljare aanhou sing. In sy matriekjaar was hy hoofseun van die Rustenburg-koor en het hy die geleentheid gehad om saam met kunstenaars soos Bernice West en Shakira Peach op te tree. Meer onlangs het Jadon die Top 20 van die Rooksein-kompetisie gehaal en in 2025 by Aardklop opgetree. Vanjaar keer hy weer terug na die Aardklop-verhoog.

Maar Wie jy was is besonder – dit is die eerste musiek wat hy amptelik vrystel. Die liedjie is gebore uit 'n ervaring waarmee baie jongmense waarskynlik kan vereenselwig. Nadat Jadon skool verlaat en universiteit toe is, het hy gesien hoe mense wat eens 'n groot deel van sy lewe was, elkeen hul eie pad begin stap. Van buite het dit soms gelyk asof almal reeds hul lewens uitgepluis het. Dit is dan maklik om jouself met ander te vergelyk, te wonder of jy agterraak – en selfs uit die oog te verloor wie jy self is. Jadon het self die liedjie geskryf, met Johan Viljoen van MOEGOE as vervaardiger. Aanvanklik het hulle 'n meer akoestiese klank met folk-invloede in gedagte gehad, maar in die ateljee het die liedjie spontaan in 'n meer alternatiewe rigting ontwikkel. Johan West het die videomateriaal vir die vrystelling verfilm. Wat aanvanklik bloot as promosie-inhoud vir sosiale media bedoel was, het só goed uitgekom dat dit dalk uiteindelik die amptelike musiekvideo kan word.

Benewens musiek werk Jadon ook in grafiese ontwerp en geniet hy dit om te skilder. Sy musikale inspirasies sluit Bernice West, Elandré, Joshua na die Reën en die internasionale kunstenaar Noah Kahan in.

Sy geloof bly ook 'n belangrike deel van wie hy as mens én kunstenaar is. “Ek hoop dat ek, soos hierdie reis groei, God so goed as moontlik kan verteenwoordig deur wie ek is, hoe ek myself gedra en wat ek skep,” sê Jadon.

Wie jy was word op 14 Augustus 2026 op groot stromingsplatforms, waaronder Spotify, Apple Music en YouTube, vrygestel en sal ook op TikTok, Instagram en Facebook beskikbaar wees.

Vir 'n jong Rustenburgse kunstenaar wat nou sy eerste amptelike tree in die musiekbedryf gee, kon die boodskap van sy debuutlied kwalik meer gepas wees: Moenie jou lewe teen iemand anders se horlosie jaag nie – leef dit.

Young authors, supporters and partners celebrated the launch of Mandela In Young Voices and Project R2Million at the Rustenburg Civic Centre.

67 Young Voices, R2 Million Dreams

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Sixty-seven young writers are no longer simply learners with stories to tell – they are published authors with a five-year journey ahead of them.

On Friday, 31 July 2026, the Rustenburg Civic Centre came alive with poetry, pride and possibility during the launch of Mandela In Young Voices, an anthology featuring poems written by learners during Mandela Month 2025. Four top young poets took to the stage to recite their work before parents, teachers, principals and partners. For many of the learners, it was the first time they had held a book carrying their own name.

But the celebration marked the beginning of something much bigger. Book World also launched Project R2Million, a five-year literacy and empowerment initiative, powered by Standard Bank, which aims to support the 67 young authors from Grade 8 until they complete matric in 2031.

“We didn’t just launch a book. We launched a five-year journey with 67 learners,” said Katlego Makoloko. “We truly believe in building futures early.”

The project rests on three pillars: a VTSD Book Donation Drive, aiming to place 22,222 books in the hands of children by 2030; a Body of Knowledge Mentorship Programme, providing the young writers with financial literacy, career development, leadership and digital skills; and the Bokwadi Education Fund. The book drive will particularly target underserved villages, towns and small dorpias where access to libraries and bookstores remains limited.

Mandela Month may have ended... but for these young writers, their story has only just begun.

“He fought for our rights, stood as our knight - a symbol of hope and a true leader.”
Lesedi Tshabalala (15), Sunrise View Secondary School learner

“Mandela’s mighty messages motivated many. Through trials and tribulations, he never looked back at the past.”
Ditebogo Thubaki (14), Sunrise View Secondary School learner

BLINK OF STINK!

AfriForum daag laerskole uit om met Blink-of-stink-herwinningskompetisie 'n verskil te maak – één plastiekbottel op 'n slag

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – AfriForum het sy nuwe Blink-of-stink-herwinningskompetisie afgeskop om herwinning en omgewingsbewustheid onder laerskoolleerders aan te moedig.

Leerders van Laerskool Proteapark en Laerskool Dawid Brink in Rustenburg, asook drie Potchefstroomse laerskole, gaan oor tien weke soveel moontlik plastiekbottels vir herwinning insamel.

Volgens Marais de Vaal, AfriForum se raadgewer vir Omgewingsake, gaan die projek oor meer as bottels: dit leer kinders dat klein, daaglikse keuses 'n groot verskil aan hul gemeenskap en die natuur kan maak.

Die skool wat die meeste plastiekbottels insamel, wen R30,000 en die Blink-of-stink-titel vir 2026. Ouers en gemeenskappe word aangemoedig om hul skole te ondersteun.

Gold rush for Rustenburg karate family

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Rustenburg's Tokon Shotokan Karate family delivered an impressive performance at the TSKKIA All Styles Competition, held from 31 July to 2 August 2026.

Hosted by well-known local karate master kancho Albert Venter, the tournament saw his sons, Shihan Pieter Venter and Sensei Heinrich Venter, shine across several divisions. Between them, they brought home an outstanding six gold medals, one silver and one bronze.

The strong showing was another proud moment for the Rustenburg dojo and the Venter karate family.

For more information about TSKKIA and upcoming events, contact 082 463 1073 or visit www.tskkia.co.za.

Champions! Sibanye Warriors celebrated after their thrilling 26–24 victory over Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club in the Luiperds President League final in Potchefstroom on Saturday, 8 August 2026.

Double glory for Sibanye Warriors!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – It was a golden Saturday for Sibanye Warriors Rugby Club, with both the first and second teams crowned champions in the Luiperds President League finals in Potchefstroom on Saturday, 8 August 2026. The Sibanye Warriors first team faced Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club in a nail-biting showdown. With very little separating the sides, the Warriors held their nerve to secure a thrilling 26–24 victory and claim the President League title. The club’s second team made the celebrations even sweeter, defeating Welkom Rugby Club 19–15 in their final. Two teams, two hard-fought finals and two victories made it an unforgettable day for Sibanye Warriors Rugby Club – and a proud moment for everyone who has supported the players throughout the season.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you think today’s children are less intelligent than previous generations?

Research suggests that rising IQ scores have slowed or even declined in some countries. Experts point to factors such as screen time, reading habits, education and lifestyle... but opinions differ. Do you believe today's children are becoming less intelligent, or are they simply developing different skills?

“No. Children aren’t necessarily less intelligent — they’re developing different skills. Technology gives them incredible access to knowledge, but knowledge, intelligence, wisdom and judgement are different things. Today’s children are simply growing up in a very different world.”

Henry Holsthyzen, Mooinooi

“No. Comparing generations can be misleading. They grew up in different times, with different education, healthcare, nutrition and life experiences. Older generations faced very different challenges, while today’s children are growing up in a world shaped by the internet.”

Lebogang Shuping, Rustenburg

Did you know?

AFTER 64 YEARS, PRONUTRO CHANGED...
For generations, the familiar taste of ProNutro was part of South African breakfast tables. The cereal was launched in South Africa in 1962 – an incredible 64 years ago! In 2026, however, ProNutro underwent a major reformulation. Manufacturer PepsiCo introduced its “New Generation ProNutro”, with a different taste and texture and 45% less total sugar than the previous recipe. While ProNutro itself is still sold in South Africa, the previous recipe has been retired – bringing an end to a familiar version of a breakfast staple that generations of South Africans grew up with.

Bosveld kilometres, big smiles for RCC

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) riders put their endurance to the test at the C2U Bosveld Mountain Bike Challenge, held at Brits Aerodrome on Saturday, 8 August 2026.

The event attracted cyclists from across the region for a demanding day in the saddle, with RCC members taking on both the 156km and 91km routes. Gerhard Bekker tackled and completed the gruelling 156km route, while Adriaan Becker, Susan Becker and Michael Maritz successfully crossed the finish line in the 91km event.

Well-stocked water points along the way kept riders hydrated and motivated, while the promise of boerewors rolls and pancakes at the finish added a delicious reward after many kilometres of hard riding. Congratulations to the RCC riders on another strong showing and for proudly flying the club's colours in the Bosveld!
